Inspired by the radical hospitality of Jesus Christ, The Presbyterian Church in Geneva welcomes all people into the life of the church regardless of sex, gender, sexual orientation, age, race, ethnicity, physical or mental ability, educational background, economic situation, or religious background.

August 1, 2021

Scripture tells us that people will come from the east and the west, the north and the south to gather in the kingdom of God. All are welcome to this table and this foretaste of glory.

As we gather we pray:

That we may all be freed of our burdens and released from anything that holds us back from coming to the table of Grace.

That those who are hungry or suffering in body may be fed and healed.

That all who are hungry or suffering in spirit may be nourished and mended.

That those who have authority may find the invitation to be fed and guided by Grace.

That those who are vulnerable may be called by name and find a safe place in the fellowship of Christ.

It was Jesus who offered to his disciples the first last supper. It is Christ who is the host of this meal today.

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

Know that you are welcome, taste and see that the Lord is good. Take your place at this table of grace.
